

CAROLYN DEWEY

Born in McMinville, Oregon, Carolyn Dewey has always found the arts to be inspiring. She has been painting professionally for 26 years.

Wearable/functional art designs give Carolyn a chance to display a fun and humorous side to her art. She designs jewelry, hats, umbrellas, shoes, buttons, coats and rain ponchos. She also creates designs for furniture, drop cloths, pillows and folk art pieces, using bright, bold colors to project positive energy.

The inspiration for Carolyn's paintings comes from the landforms, shapes and colors of nature - mountains, seascapes and the sky. Working with oils, Carolyn uses large brushes on large, stretched canvases. She transforms a natural scene into an abstract impression by blending lines of color, finishing the piece with broad swipes of paint applied with a palette knife.

Her work is a part of private and corporate collections throughout the United States and Canada. Purchasers include Ed Asner and Jean Auel. Eight of her paintings have been made into posters by Gango Editions and are best-sellers in United States and European art markets.
